HARDING APPEALS TO GOVERNORS FOR AID

House Will Probe Ku Klux Klan

THREE MAY DIE AS RESULT OF STREET BATTLE

Governor Neff Deplores Incident and Offers State Aid to Authorities

PROBE TO BE DELAYED

Grand Jury Will Not Consider Clash Until Extent of Wounds Determined

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 3. — W. J. Simmons, imperial wizard of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, today was requested by Chairman Campbell of the house rules committee, to come to Washington on October 11, for the hearing on the Klan, it was announced late today by Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, head of the order's propaganda department. Colonel Simmons was reported ill at his home, but Mrs. Tyler said he would appear before the committee "even if he has to be taken on a stretcher," and that probably other officers of the Klan would accompany him.

WACO, Tex., Oct. 3.—With three men still in a critical condition tonight as a result of knife or pistol wounds received Saturday night during a clash at Lorena, near here, when Sheriff Ben Buchanan attempted to halt a parade of Ku Klux Klansmen, interest centered about what steps of officials would take to place responsibility.

In last informed quarters, it was stated tonight that District Judge R. L. Monroe and F. B. Tiers, county attorney, were considering calling the grand jury but that they probably would await the outcome of the victims' injuries before acting.

So far, the only comment offered by state officials came from Governor Pat M. Neff, who, in a statement, expressed the "great regret that such a thing should occur anywhere in the state," and announced he had offered officials of McLennan county any assistance they might need in throwing light upon the affair.

The statement, issued at the governor's office today, follows:

"Governor Neff, when asked about the Lorena Ku Klux Klan parade in which the sheriff and citizens of McLennan county were wounded, expressed great regret that such a thing should occur anywhere in the state, and stated that soon after he heard of the occurrence yesterday, he tendered his official services and the aid of the state to the county officials of McLennan county to help them in every way possible in searching out the truth in upholding the law in every way."

The governor's offer was declined with thanks by County Attorney F. B. Tiers, who stated that local authorities could handle the situation.

Further developments in the affair now await action of the district judge. R. L. Monroe announced would be called at the earliest possible date. Both officials believe the investigation should be delayed pending the outcome of the injuries received by those seriously injured in the fight.

Kuckenbecker To Quit As Clerk Of Board Supervisors

Hankins, Clark and Delbridge Reported to be Seeking County Position

Louis Kuckenbecker, clerk of the board of supervisors, yesterday tendered his resignation to that body to take effect on October 15. According to advices received here last evening, Kuckenbecker has been offered a position in Los Angeles much better than his present one and has accepted it. Kuckenbecker has been clerk of the board for the past three years. Before that he was in the mercantile business in Tombstone with his father, who died about three years ago.

There are already three applicants for the position, according to reports last evening. M. C. Hankins, former postmaster at Douglas, W. A. Clark, present assistant to Kuckenbecker, and William Delbridge, of this city. The board was in session yesterday at Tombstone and disposed of the usual routine matters, auditing the regular monthly bills.

A delegation of citizens of Warren was present and protested against the removing of Deputy Sheriff Page from that locality. After consideration the board decided to retain Page.

HOUSE BILL 83 BEING ARGUED IN SUPREME COURT

Case Involving Calling of Special State Election Assumes New Angle

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 3. — Arguments in the case of V. P. Clements against Ernest R. Hill, secretary of state, to compel the latter to submit House Bill 83 to the voters of the state at a special election, were begun in the state supreme court this afternoon. Both sides completed their opening statements today and arguments will be resumed when court reconvenes tomorrow morning.

The case originally was scheduled for 10 o'clock this morning but at that hour attorneys for Clements declared that they had not had time to complete their study of Secretary Hill's 36 page answer to the writ to show cause and the case was continued until 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The writ to show cause was issued by the supreme court several days ago and directed Hill either to call the election or show cause why a writ of mandamus ordering him to call the election should not be issued.

An unexpected turn occurred in the case today when Sam H. Kyle, an attorney of Phoenix, who formerly lived in Cochise county, requested permission to intervene. Kyle's petition alleged that he was a qualified voter in Cochise county before he moved to Phoenix and that he had resided here long enough to qualify as a voter but that Miss Edith Jacobs, county recorder of Maricopa county, had refused to register him as a voter.

Should the special election be called

HIGHTOWER IS CALM AS TRIAL JURY SELECTED

Man Accused of Murdering Catholic Priest Whistles On Leaving Court

COURTROOM CROWDED

Eleven Prospective Jurors are Tentatively Accepted; Six Are Women

REDWOOD CITY, Cal., Oct. 3. — Eleven prospective jurors tentatively accepted by the state and defense were in the box when court adjourned tonight at the end of the first day of the trial of William A. Hightower, on charges of murdering Father Patrick E. Heslin, Catholic priest of Colma. The state had exercised four of its ten peremptory challenges and the defense three of its twenty.

Six of those in the jury box were women, and at almost all times today, women were in the majority in the tentative jury.

The defense inquired rigorously into the social and religious beliefs of veniremen, asking each whether the fact that the slain man was a priest would affect his decision. They also were asked whether the presence or absence of Hightower from the witness chair would affect their opinions. It is expected the jury will be completed definitely tomorrow.

Hightower, sitting beside his counsel, displayed composure throughout the proceedings, but seemed worn by his confinement in jail. As he was removed from the courtroom at the end of the session, he whistled cheerfully.

The small courtroom of this little town was packed with a crowd of veniremen, witnesses and spectators, more than half the latter being women.

J. Harry Dunlap, who swore out a warrant charging David Bender, an escaped Maryland convict, since returned to serve out his sentence, with the slaying of Father Heslin, was arraigned today on a charge of perjury. The district attorney said there was no evidence to connect Bender with the killing. Dunlap was employed as a detective by Hightower's counsel.

Hightower protested his innocence from the first and maintained that he would be willing to have a full jury of priests sit in judgment on him. The killing of Father Heslin provided one of the greatest murder mysteries in California.

Days of grilling and the accumulation of much evidence against Hightower failed to break him down. So great was the strain to which he was subjected that he was unable to eat the first few days of the examination and lost many pounds in weight.

Father Heslin was called from his home at Colma, a suburb of San Francisco, about nine o'clock the night of Tuesday, August 2, by a muffled strain

MISS M'ARDLE IS PLACED ON TRIAL

Girl Is Calm as Jury Picked To Decide Charge; Mother Breaks Down in Court

CLEVELAND, Oct. 3. — Ten tentative jurors were seated to try Marian McArdle, charged with the first degree murder of Dan Kaber, her stepfather, when the first day of her trial came to a close today. At the trial of Mrs. Eva Katherine Kaber, the girl's mother, who was convicted of Kaber's murder and sentenced to life imprisonment, the defense succeeded in keeping women off the jury, but the defense did not object to the selection of women today, and five were in the box.

Throughout the questioning of the talesmen, Miss McArdle's attitude was in almost direct contrast to that of her mother when the latter was on trial. To all outward appearance, she was the most unconcerned individual in the courtroom. Her mother was almost stoical. Occasionally she smiled at the prospective jurors.

SOVIET DENIES TAKING PART IN INDIAN REVOLT

Russia Blames Germans For Charge It Is Involved in Anti-British Intrigue

AFFIRMS FRIENDLINESS

Accusation of Inciting Poland to War Again Hurdled at French Government

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The reply of the Russian Soviet government to Great Britain's recent note charging intrigue against Great Britain in central Asia, is understood to be on its way here from Moscow. The note, it is asserted, does not attempt to answer the charges of the British government, except to assert that the evidence secured by the government was founded on forgeries emanating from "a notorious German agency."

The note maintains that the eastern policy of the Soviet has been uniformly friendly to Great Britain and that Tashkent is not an anti-British propaganda center.

Complaint is made in the note that Great Britain has shown herself unfriendly to the Soviet.

The note asserts emphatically that the Soviet government has had no dealings with the British Indian revolutionaries since the signing of the trade agreement. It objects to Great Britain and France taking common action regarding famine relief in Russia and repeats the charge that France has incited Poland and Rumania to war against Soviet Russia.

British Officer And Mechanics Die In Airplane Crash

LONDON, Oct. 3. — An airplane crashed today near the Manston Air-drome from a height of 200 feet, and a flying officer and four mechanics were killed. A strong wind was blowing and the machine burst into flames. A sergeant of the air force ran with an axe to the blazing machine in an attempt to rescue the men in the wreckage, but the flames drove him back.

APPROVE MINE TRANSFER

EDINBURGH, Scotland, Oct. 3. — By an overwhelming majority, the shareholders of the Arizona Copper Company today ratified the agreement transferring the property to the American Phelps-Dodge Corporation.

OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. — The 600th anniversary of the death of Dante Alighieri was commemorated tonight at exercises in the national museum presided over by Secretary Hughes, who said of the great Italian, "He is ours as well as Italy's."

REBELS CONTROL VAST TERRITORY

100,000 Square Miles in India Is Claimed by Insurgent Agent in New York

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. — Rebel forces in India control more than 100,000 square miles of territory, over which they have proclaimed absolute independence, according to a statement issued here tonight by S. N. Ghose, national director of the American Commission to Promote Self Government in India.

Press dispatches from Calcutta, the statement said, "state that the rebels are offering the Hindus the alternative of death or Islam. Nothing can be further from the truth. In the Malabar region, the ratio of the Mohammedans to the Hindus bears fifty to fifty and if it were a case of Mohammedan uprising against the Hindus, the latter would have sided with the British authorities for self protection."

"The uprising between the Indian people against the British broke out seven weeks ago, and the grown military forces have not been able to crush the movement."

CARL HAYDEN PREDICTS NEED FOR ECONOMY WILL RESULT IN RETURN OF DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Carl Hayden, member of congress from Arizona and the best known man in public life in the state, was a visitor in Bisbee yesterday. Accompanied by Mrs. Hayden, the congressman is on his way to Washington after enjoying a short vacation in Arizona from his work in congress. The couple stopped off in Douglas and Hayden took advantage of the opportunity to visit both Tombstone and Bisbee while in Cochise county.

Everyone is hoping that something advantageous will come out of the international conference on the limitation of armament, according to the visitor. He declared that while many people realized the position that the republicans placed the country, for political purposes alone, there was little disposition on the part of Democratic leaders to obstruct the conference.

Congressman Hayden declared

his tour through Arizona has convinced him of the necessity for economy in government, nationally as well as in the state. He declared that the state government is costing entirely too much money and that the extravagance should be curtailed. He declared, moreover, that there appears to be a general demand from all sides for relief and that this demand presaged a return of Democratic officers in Arizona.

Asked as to his own plans, the congressman inferred that he would become a candidate again to congress. He has been spoken of as the Democratic candidate for governor on many occasions. While he did not definitely commit himself, he did say that he thought he could be of more value in the lower house of congress, particularly through his knowledge of the membership there, to the state of Arizona than by returning to the state.

START TAKING TESTIMONY IN SOUTHWARD CASE

Prosecution to Contend Fly Poison Used by Woman to Kill Former Husband

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Oct. 3. — A poisonous substance used as an insect exterminator supplied the theme about which was woven the stories of the first two witnesses to testify for the state in the trial of Lydia M. Southard for the murder of Edward F. Meyer, a former husband, by means of poison secured from soaking pieces of the paper in water and administered in her husband's food.

The opening statement by Prosecution Attorney Frank L. Stephan, was delivered immediately following the securing of a jury. He said he would show the alleged crime was committed by means of poison derived from fly paper.

Only a small number of spectators were present when the first witness for the state, Mrs. Carrie Howe, of Muncatine, Iowa, boarding house keeper at the Blue Lakes Ranch at the time of the death of Meyer, told the defendant bringing fly paper to the ranch and setting it about the boarding house in saucers of water.

She described in detail the illness of Meyer and the events leading up to his death, told of conversations with the defendant in which she advised the calling of a physician and the defendant's reply that "she would call a doctor and then no one would have anything to say." She testified that following the removal of Meyer from the ranch to a Twin Falls hospital, she found two packages of the fly paper in a drawer in the room occupied by the Meyers. She also found a "Daisy" fly killer under the bed in the room.

That the defendant also told the witness that she did not love her husband as a wife should, was testified to by Mrs. Howe, who added that she advised Mrs. Meyer to "treat him right," to which the defendant replied that she intended to. Cross examination failed to shake her testimony.

Granville Haight, manager of the ranch upon which Meyer was employed as foreman up to the time of his last illness, told of conversations with both the deceased and his wife. He stated that he was present when the exterminator was discovered and identified certain marks placed thereon at the time he turned it over to Deputy Sheriff Ormsby when the latter first entered upon his long investigation of the Meyer death.

PROMINENT NEBRASKA BANKER UNDER ARREST

OMAHA, Oct. 3. — E. R. Gurney, widely known Nebraska banker, president of the defunct Lion Bonding and Surety company, was arrested tonight on indictments returned by the grand jury charging embezzlement. Eight have been arrested of the 97 indicted in 58 true bills returned by the jury in its investigation of stock jobbing. Three indictments were returned against Gurney, each containing two counts charging embezzlement and theft of more than $300,000 of funds, certificates of deposit, and notes belonging to the Lion Bonding and Surety company. He was released under $10,000 bonds.

STATE CHIEFS URGED TO HELP NATION HANDLE UNEMPLOYMENT

Executives and Mayors Asked To Join in Movement to Correct Conditions

WASHINGTON HELPLESS

President Admits Problem Is Too Big For Administration to Solve

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. — Governors and mayors throughout the country were asked by President Harding in a public statement today to organize in each community machinery for the correction of economic conditions along the lines worked out by the unemployment conference here.

The conference, the president declared, had demonstrated that conditions could not be met properly without such local co-operation. He announced that a central agency would be maintained here under auspices of the conference to give national co-ordination to the rehabilitation effort.

The president's statement follows: "The conference which I recently summoned to Washington to advise as to the unemployment situation has demonstrated that an unusual volume of unemployment exists and that pending the recuperation of trade, the situation cannot be met, in due regard to our obligations and necessities, without a much more than usual organization throughout those states and municipalities where unemployment has reached considerable proportions."

"The conference has recommended a plan of organization which has had the support of commercial, manufacturing, professional and labor representatives of the country. It is highly necessary that more accurate knowledge should be had, through such organization, of the volume and necessities of the unemployed. It is essential that the co-operation of all sections of each community should be brought into action behind such organization to provide work and assistance that we may pass through the coming winter without great suffering and distress. It is of national importance that every community should at once undertake such organization in order that the nation may be protected as a whole. Moreover, the thorough commitment to such a task is sure to start a thousand activities which will add to our common welfare."

"I, therefore, appeal to the governors and mayors of the nation that

Baseball Returns

The New York Giants and New York Yankees will tomorrow play the first game of the 1921 world's series.

In order that every baseball fan in the Warren District may enjoy the games, without actually seeing them, The Daily Review will bulletin every game, play by play, and inning by inning, in front of The Review office.

The games will start at 2 o'clock eastern time — about 12 (noon) Bisbee time.

The Review's Associated Press leased wire will bring direct to The Review office every move that is made in the entire series. A description of each play will be bulletined to the crowds in front of The Review as soon as it is received.

Be in front of The Review at noon tomorrow and enjoy every play in the first game.

Senators Offer Many Amendments To Tax Revision Bill But Make Little Progress During Debates

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. — Comparative little progress on the tax revision bill was made today by the senate. The most important committee amendments reached, those proposing a tax of 15 per cent on corporations, and increasing exemptions to heads of families, having incomes of less than $5000, and on account of dependents passed over a second time.

Committee amendments agreed to included those requiring individuals having a gross income of $5000 a year to make a return regardless of the amount of the net income and permitting the tax payer to make a reduction for debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off within a taxable year.

Several amendments were proposed from the floor. Senator King, Democrat, Utah, offered a substitute for his previous income surtax amendment under which the maximum rate would be 40 per cent of that portion of the income in excess of $70,000. The rate on the first $2000 of net income would be 2 per cent; on the next $1000, 3 per cent; on the next $1000, 4 per cent with an increase of 1 per cent for each additional $1000 up to $8000. Then the rate would be increased 1 per cent for each additional $2000.

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, proposed that deductions be allowed corporations for rents received from buildings of any character to the extent of 6 per cent "of the face market value of such buildings and the land on which they stand."
